All Messages Sent are Subject to the Following Conditions:

The Management may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the N. P. T. or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the N. P. T., they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The N. P. T. shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the N. P. Reference attached concerning above named soldier.

No previous action has been taken in connection with this man to my knowledge. I have interviewed him and he states that the question of his ~~release~~ release was broached to Major Carty, then Officer Commanding, Depot during the early days of his enlistment, but I can find no correspondence on the subject.

4695, Pte Alex. Anthony

The above named soldier enlisted on April 7th and was 19 years of age August 31st. His mother came to see me to find out whether he could be granted leave of absence or allowed to make application for exemption.

She has one son in the American Army and one daughter at Red Cross work in America. There is nobody home but a small boy aged 13, her husband being dead 14 years. She states that Private Anthony enlisted without her knowledge, and now as the cold weather is setting in she finds it difficult to support herself.

I informed her that my authority with regard to granting leave of absence or the question of releasing him from the service was limited and that I would refer his case to you.
