From (Rev) Gordon Elliott.
The Parsonage
Dacks Beach. P.B.

To Ministry of Militia
G. R. & E. Dept.
St John's

I am sorry the answer to yours No. 1493 has been so long delayed. The reason is that I left on the stove. It arrived & although I told them how to answer it in case it should come, through diffidence they neglected to do so until yesterday was it brought to my notice that it remained unanswered.

The brother desires that the headstone sent by the Imperial War Graves Commission be forwarded on here for erection locally.

No further inscription is required other than that placed on it by the Dept; which I take it describes the Rank, No., & partic. of death of deceased.

Yours truly
Gordon Elliott

Dear Sir

I enclose herewith a form issued by the Graves Registration & Enquiries Dept. & I have filled it out on behalf of the relatives.

When the form was brought to me I found out that the relatives had already ordered a headstone some time before & there was some doubt as to whether the stone was up or not so we delayed sending in the form until this should be ascertained. We are now informed that it is erected in the cemetery.

I am writing therefore to ask that that being the case whether it would be possible either 1. for the headstone donated by your Dept. be forwarded here for erection in our graveyard in deceased's memory.
or 2. whether the value of ~~the~~ the Dept's stone could be placed to the credit of the cost of the private stone. I should like to know what is usually done in cases like this, which I'm sure is not an isolated one.

I remain yours truly
(Rw) Gordon Elliott

C.R. 1493

MAY 5th 1920.

Rev. Gordon Elliott,
The Parsonage,
Tacks Beach.

Rev. and dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 30th, forwarding Cemetery Register Form for 1493 Pte. Ernest Brown, which, incidentally, has not been completed. In connection with Headstones for soldiers buried in this country I would state that the Imperial War Graves Commission will be despatching a Headstone for every grave. In view of the fact that the parents of the soldier in question have already erected a stone it will be possible to forward the Standard Memorial to them to be erected locally, or, if they should prefer it, to erect the Standard Memorial over the soldier's grave and thereby having it marked as every soldier's grave on the battlefield is marked, and taking the stone already erected to Tacks Beach.

In answer to your second query I am afraid there is no possibility of a refund being made for the stone already erected. This matter has been taken up with the Imperial War Graves Commission and they are unable to consider refunds in this connection.

I am returning the Form herewith and would apprecise it if you will have a suitable inscription written in accordance with the instructions, and also have the Form signed.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Colonel,
Chief Staff Officer.
