Epworth Dec 26th 2114

My dear Sir I sincerely thank you for your expression of sympathy in behalf of the Government. more especially for your personal assurance of respect for our dear boy who freely gave himself to do his bit in this great struggle. he went with the conviction that his country needed him. and though with the rest of our dear boys, he had to endure untold hardships in those barred trenches, yet he never complained but his letters were always cheerful and expressed a hope that he would come back after the war was finished.

but alas we shall see him no more till we pass on to that homeland of the soul. he was a good lad and sent us repeated assurances that if God saw fit to take him he felt quite ready to go. and Sir we are consoling ourselves that God in his infinite wisdom will bring good out of what at present seems evil. With sincere regards for yourself and all sorrowing ones. We remain Sir yours to suffer and submit. Henry & Bessie Pughen.

Dear sir Being that as Colonial Secretary it was your duty to inform us of the passing of our dear boy I have been wondering if you could get any particulars from record office London concerning him you know as parents we are feeling the smart of this terrible news and altho in a sence it was what we were fearing yet still we hoped somehow he would be spared and brought through.

But we must bow in submission to the divine decree and pay the will of the Lord be done. We are wondering if it were possible to learn anything of how the dear boy fell, and wether he suffered much or not and where his dear body lies. Wether it was in a boyons charge or not that he was slain. I feel sure sir you will do all you can to give us all the information you can hoping to hear from you soon as possible we remain

All Messages Sent are Subject to the Following Conditions:

The Management may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the N. P. T. or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the N. P. T., they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The N. P. T. shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the N. P. T. over the Message shall be deemed to have entirely ceased for the purposes of these Conditions at any point where, in the course of the transit of the Message to its destination, it may be entrusted by the N. P. T. (and the N. P. T. shall have full power so to entrust the Message) for further transmission by or through any system, service, or line of Telegraph belonging to or worked by any administration or authority not controlled by the N. P. T. exclusively, although worked as part of or in connection with the Telegraphic system or service of the N. P. T.

I request that the following Telegram may be forwarded according to the foregoing Conditions, by which I agree to abide.

2815, Pte. John S. Bugden

Dear Sir:-

Seeing that as Colonial Secretary it was your duty to inform us of the passing of our dear boy, I have been wondering if you would get any particulars from Record office, London concerning him. You know as parents, we are feeling the smart of this terrible news, and although in a sense, it was what we were fearing, yet, still we hoped somehow he would be spared and brought through. But we must bow in submission to the Devine decree and say the will of the Lord be done. We were wondering if it is possible to learn anything of how the dear boy fell, and whether he suffered much or not, and where his dear body is, whether it was in bayonet charge or not that he was slain.

I feel sure, sir, you will do all you can to give us all the information you can.

Hoping to hear from you soon as possible,

We remain,

Sir,

The Striken parents of Pte. J.S. Bugden

Mr. Henry Bugden,
Egworth, Burin.

Dear Sir:

I beg to return herewith the Cemetery Register Form, as I am afraid the Inscription filled in by you will not be accepted by the Director of Graves Registration and Enquires. I should be glad if you would kindly fill in another Inscription or Text, and return Form to this Department as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Colonel,
Chief Staff Officer.
