Sir,                    2427, Pte. A. Bulgin,
                          1st Bn. Royal Newfoundland Regiment.

With reference to this man, who has been brought here to-day in charge of P. C. Chas. Woolette. The facts as I understand them are, that Bulgin whilst on furlough from B. E. F. was admitted to Military Hospital, Warlingham, was discharged 18/1/18, and sent to the Regimental Depot, Winchester, for 7 days light duty as recommended by the M. O. Hospital. O. C. Depot being required to send Bulgin to report to this Office 25/1/18, to be returned to his unit B. E. F. Apparently he did not get a pass from the Depot, Winchester, to this Office, only a Railway warrant.

Under the circumstances he is not an absentee, please.

Sir,                    3427, Pte. A. Bulgin,
1st Bn. Royal Newfoundland Regiment.

With reference to this man, who has been brought here to-day in charge of P. O. Ghas. Woollette. The facts as I understand them are, that Bulgin whilst on furlough from B. E. F. was admitted to Military Hospital, Warlingham, was discharged 18/1/18, and sent to the Regimental Depot, Winchester, for 7 days light duty as recommended by the M. O. Hospital. O. C. Depot being required to send Bulgin to report to this Office 25/1/18, to be returned to his unit B. E. F. Apparently he did not get a pass from the Depot, Winchester, to this Office, only a Railway warrant.

Under the circumstances he is not an absentee, please.

Dear Sir:

Sometime ago the Military Medal won by the late Pte. A. Bulgin was received here. I wrote his father asking him to come to St. John's for a formal presentation, he replied to the effect that this would be impossible, but from the tone of his letter I gathered that he would like to receive the decoration at some suitable public gathering at Twillingate. I should be glad if you would arrange to have this carried out.

I am enclosing the decoration together with a copy of the extract of the deed for which the Medal was awarded.

Kindly convey to Mr. Bulgin, at this presentation, the congratulations of the Minister of Militia and all Ranks of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, and at the same time the sympathy of all in that Pte. Bulgin cannot be present to receive the decoration which he so gallantly won.

Yours faithfully,
