Dear Madam,

I am in receipt of your letter of August 4, addressed to me at the War Veterans Association. In accordance with the Pensions Regulations no pension is payable to the sister of a deceased soldier after her marriage, and under these regulations it is regretted therefore, that you are not eligible for any assistance.

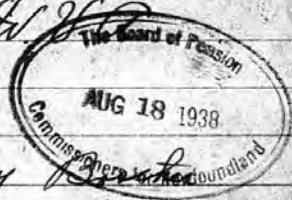

Yours very truly,

J. A. McGrath,
Clerk, War Pensions.

Sir

In reference to my ~~brother~~ Garratt Burke that I was speaking to you about a few days ago, As you asked me to drop you a line and give you the Particulars.

He was in D. Company his Regimental No 1023

He was killed in the July Drive. As I was the next of kin he left me an allotment as his father and mother were dead. I received the allotment monthly until he was killed. I got nothing after that.

I have been informed by reliable people that there was money for Soldiers after the war was over

But I didn't get any, Altho I applied several times in person. I am married now but I was not married then and I didn't get the money. If it was there then for him it must be there yes, I was sent to you several times I always get the same reply. I am hoping now to get the full Particulars from you now.

I remain

Yours etc
