Sirs

My mother has been drawing a separation allowance for me since the later part of 1919. I understand that a person drawing a separation allowance is entitled to same from the time that the person on whom they are dependant enlisted. I joined the 1st Regt Dec 1914 so I would be very much obliged if you would forward any back money to my mother I know for a fact that it was payed to boys on the other side of the water. Hoping you will give this your attention
