J.R. Bennett, Esq',

Minister of Militia,

City.

Dear Sir:-

I enclose herewith letter from Rev. Father Joy, of Port au Port, in which he asks if the son of widow Campbell, now a Forester in Scotland, could be brought back, seeing that through the death of another son, she is left without any one to carry on the work of a little farm. <sup>The</sup> Circumstances appear to be such as to make this request one that would strongly commend itself to you, and I hope that you may find it possible to do something in the matter. Meanwhile, I have written Father Joy suggesting to him that she has a right to apply for separation allowance, to which I think she would be regarded as entitled.

Yours truly,

Chairman.

Portau Port,
Dec. 24, 1919.

Dear Sir Patrick:

Yesterday I buried
James Campbell, son of Widow
Kate Campbell, Campbell's Creek Portau Port. Though a cripple he could get wood and attend to the barn. There is a horse and a few cattle. She is now all alone and I have arranged with the neighbors to give her a help for the present.
Another son Mike died two years ago, another Hugh died in the Navy, England.

John is in the Forestry, Scotland.
Will you please see that he is sent home immediately.

In your kind charity wire me a word of hope, so that during the Xmas Season I may be able to carry consolation to this poor, broken-hearted widow. I have written to Hon. Remond

A Happy Xmas

Sincerely Yours,

F. J. Joy

Yesterday I buried
James Campbell, son of Widow

a help for the present.

Another son Mike died two

Dear Sir:

I enclose herewith letter from Rev. Father Joy, of Port au Port, in which he asks if the son of widow Campbell, now a Forester in Scotland, could be brought back, seeing that through the death of another son, she is left without any one to carry on the work of a little farm. The circumstances appear to be such as to make this request one that would strongly commend itself to you, and I hope that I may find it possible to do something in the matter. Meanwhile, I have written Father Joy suggesting to him that she has a right to apply for separation allowance, to which I think she would be regarded as entitled.

Yours truly.

Mrs Catherine Campbell, Widow of Dan. S. Campbell, Campbell's Creek,

Dear Madam:-

Referring to your application for Separation Allowance I have been directed to inform you that same cannot be granted to you.

Your statement shows that during the war you had six single sons, of whom at least five were to all intents and purposes fit for service. Had a third one offered for enlistment, the allowance could be granted, but as the regulations provide that in the case of a widow with three or more single sons, the allowance can only be paid when the third one enlists, your claim has been refused.

Yours truly,

Major
Paymaster
