Dear Sir Alexander:

Mrs Charles Curtis of Reunis Mill Road who has been quite ill for over a year and is still severely ill, I am informed, desire me to ask the military authorities if it would be possible to have her son Don, who has been ordered across sea, returned in Newfoundland a little longer. I have thought it wise to refer the matter to your Excellency. Dr Anderson, Mr Curtis' physician is ready to report as to the urgency or otherwise of his patient's condition.

Please return ORIGINAL and retain DUPLICATE.

The following is put on record, please.

- 1) Extract your No. 29 (732) of 19/1/18.
"2032 Carter's Mother seriously ill if possible give him furlough home."
On receipt of which I communicated with O.C. 1st Bn. as per my No. 1113/24 R&C (copy of which was sent to you 1/2/18) and on receipt of his reply telephoned you 172/37 of 31/1/18 as follows:

"Ref. your telegram 19 January 2032 Carter O.C. 1st Battalion states impracticable repatriate at present full stop."

This apparently crossed your No. 46 (1106) of 31/1/18

On receipt of which I telegraphed the O.C. 1st Bn. as follows:- 1/2/18. (No.39)

Nothing further was heard of the matter until 10/2/18 when I received your telegram 60 (1439)

"With reference to my telegram 31st January No. 46 will 2032 Carter be repatriated."

Obverse noted and extracts of telegrams confirmed. Attached copies of correspondence received with thanks. This man will likely be returned with next draft.

His reply came to hand 13/2/18 (1552)

"No 900 aaa application through proper channels."

and I thereupon telegraphed you:

telegram begins application for special leave 2032

On 25/2/18 I received the following from O.C. 1st. Bn. (1942):-

also to enclose copies of this office memoranda Nos.
994/89, 1 & 8/2/17 and 1474/115, 16 & 20/2/17, exchanged with the O.C. 2nd Bn.

It is appreciated that these continuous complaints of non-deliveries must be very disquieting; but as already indicated after postal matter has passed out of this office, the control and responsibility for deliveries rests entirely with others.

As you will doubtless be aware, the subject is one which has also been referred to from time to time in interchange of correspondence, both telegraphic and otherwise, with S.E. the Governor and I would suggest that you might be good enough to refer to such correspondence.

Copies of further correspondence are likewise enclosed for your information.

During various conversations with Col. Hadow, who has been in this Country on sick leave, the different aspects so far as the 1st Bn. is concerned were discussed at length, appear that although losses of mail matter especially when the addressees are in the inevitable, it is sometimes more a question of deliveries than actual losses, and perhaps if patience were exercised the interchange of between your and this office might be considerably

The Postal Services branch in this office is one which has received preeminent attention both in its organisation and administration: sorting, redirections and general details occupy the time of two men continuously and exclusively, and sometimes with extra pressure it is necessary to augment from other branches.

It may be noted that the Canadians have in London one man and about 100 men dealing with parcels alone. If any more were added which I have no direct control continue, it will be necessary for me to have another officer to be partly in charge of this branch, as the amount of enquiries, correspondence etc. with you and others is increasing to the exclusion of other pressing duties.

I may add that I am in constant communication with the Army as well as the Civil Post Office authorities, for the purpose of ventilating complaints, and recently sent an officer and the Staff-Sergeant of the Postal Services branch specially to interview the C.C. Home Depot, H.E., A.P.O., a report of which is now being prepared and will be forwarded to you as soon as time and circumstances will permit of its completion.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Major,

Paymaster & O. 1/c Records.

and it would appear that although losses of mail matter at the Front, especially when the addressees are in the trenches, are inevitable, it is sometimes more a question of delay in deliveries than actual losses, and perhaps if a little more patience were exercised the interchanges of telegrams between you and this office might be considerably reduced.

The Postal Services Branch in this office is one which has received particular attention both in its organization and administration; morning, redirections and general details occupy the time of two per cent. continuously and exclusively, and combined with extra pressure it is necessary to suggest from other branches.

I have mentioned that the staff here in London are one officer and about 100 men dealing with various items. If these complaints over which I have no direct control continue, it will be necessary for me to have another officer to be kept in charge of this branch, by the amount of enquiries, correspondence etc. with you and others is increasing to the exclusion of other pressing duties.

I may add that I am in constant communication with the Army as well as the Civil and Air authorities, for the use of ventilating appliances, and recently sent an officer to the staff of the Postal Services Branch specially to interview the A.S. and A.S. a report of this is not being prepared and will be forwarded to you as soon as the arrangements will permit of its completion.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Yours faithfully,

John Lubbock, Secretary.

Colonial Secretary,

Whitehall, S.W. 1.
