Mr. James Clarke,
Whitbourne.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your application for Separation allowance, I have been directed to inform you that same cannot be granted, because according to your application there is nothing to show that you are not capable of supporting yourself, and, therefore, you cannot be considered to be totally dependent upon your son.

Yours truly.

Dear Sir

I am writing you for information I got little information about my brothers gratulatory money. This money was suppose to be drawed dead or alive as far as I can understand; if this money was drawed I would like to know who drawed it, If it is not drawed please let me know and who is suppose to draw it, If it is there now dosent you think that I am the fittest one for it, it was all leved to my father and he is dead and I am in his place now, It is time for some one to look up those things and enterseade about it and I think that I am the rite one for to have it please answer and tell me all about it;

I remain yours sincerely Harry Clarke

April 10th., 1934.

Mr. Harry Clarke,
Whitbourne.

Dear Sir:-

With reference to your letter of the 5th., inst., making enquires regarding the balance of 'Pay' due your deceased brother, I beg to state that I have looked through the file of your deceased brother and so far as I can see all monies due him to the date of his death have been paid. Any monies due would have been paid to his father, the next-of-kin.

Regarding War Service Gratuity I understand that this was not awarded unless a soldier returned from Overseas and was discharged from the Service.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
