Last evening I received the following cable from London viz. "Cable twenty pounds through Militia on furlough 444 Colbourne". This morning I wired you the amount asked for, since doing so I have been informed from Grand Falls that several of the parents of boys there had a little while ago received similar cables asking for money, and later had received letters from them saying that they had not sent for any money, and had not received any, hence my reason for wiring you this afternoon. Kindly ascertain if my son 444 is really in London and if he is on furlough for home, he is one of the first five hundred that went over and the first that volunteered from Bishop's Falls. If any expense I will pay it. I am Sir your truly

His Excellency has just about reached the other side and <sup>no</sup> ~~now~~ doubt ~~has~~ handled the matter with the Secretary of State for War at the War office, he has the interest of this Regiment very much at heart and is certain to do all he can.
