ENCLOSURE.

H

July 12, 1916.

Dear Sir,

It was with the deepest regret that the Government received a cable from the Record Office, London, reporting that your son, Private Edward Louis Cole, had been killed in action on the 28th June, last.

Permit me to tender you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We all feel the loss of our loved ones and the whole community unite in sympathy with you at this time.

It is no doubt some comfort to think that your brave boy came forward early, at the call of King and Country, and has given his life, after a gallant fight, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. His name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow countrymen. We are proud of our brave lads and equally proud of the noble and loyal fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the call of duty came. Though your noble son has laid down his earthly weapons he is wearing to-day the Soldier's Crown of Victory and, when Peace again reigns amongst us, it will be your proud thought that he did his part to the fullest extent in bringing again that condition of things. I trust you may have the comforting presence of the Father of us all.

With my sincerest sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Mr. Cole,
