Dear Sir:

Mr. John Cox now of Danbury, Connecticut, U.S.A. wants to obtain certified copies of his Discharge from the Army and I thought these might be obtainable in St. John's, although I have been given to understand by his brother that he was actually discharged in England. He enlisted August 6th, 1914 in the First Newfoundland Contingent and his number, I am told, was 809 and that he was discharged at the close of hostilities in 1918. If you can furnish me with two certified copies of his Discharge I would be greatly obliged but if these cannot be obtained there perhaps you might advise me where I could get them.

Yours truly,
