Dear Mr Anderson:-

I regret very much I could not write earlier to give any information concerning my case, but as I had no paper nor pencil to use, it was only the arrival of this on yesterday that gives me the opportunity of writing to-day. This Hospital I believe has been in communication with your office, and you have been informed concerning me. There is nothing new that I can say. The operation has not yet come off, but probably will on Thursday. I felt wretchedly ill during the week but am better now.

Kindly despatch the enclosed EFM.

I am sorry that

3.

This illness has kept me so long and will keep me so much longer from my duties at the office, but I sincerely hope that it has not been the cause of too much inconvenience to you.

Yours sincerely
