

Davis, John, Regt. No. 738

Military Medal

London Gazette, January 14th 1918

Action Date, October 9th 1917 – Broembeek

He showed great tact and coolness. All N.C.O.'s in his Platoon had become casualties, so he collected all his men together and led them all through the attack. After reaching the third objective he supervised consolidation and his brave example greatly encouraged his men.
