In reply to yours of the 19th inst to General Smith I beg to say that Mr Smith is too ill to attend to any work whatever.
I do not think you could get a local man to contract for such a job. At the present time all or most of our men are at the Labrador.

I think it would be better to send a man from St Johns who understands concrete work and he could get what other labour he wants locally.
