FEBRUARY 21st 1920.

Mr. Andrew Douglas,
Brunette Island,
Fortune Bay.

Dear Sir:

I am returning herewith Cemetery Register Form, as the Inscription forwarded by you exceeds the number of letters allowed. If you will notice the paragraphs which I have pencilled you will see that the Inscription is limited to sixty six letters, less the number of spaces between the words.

As yet we have no information concerning the burial place of your son, but no doubt you will hear in due course all particulars concerning his gravesite.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Colonel,
Chief Staff Officer.

" Regarding your request for a

" I regret to say that there is no in"formation in this office concerning the

"29/9/18. Should any information be re"ceived at a later date you will be at
"once informed.

" In the final clearing up of the "battlefields it is expected that the "identity of unknown graves will in a "great number of cases be established
"and in addition many graves will be found
"which to date have not been reported and
"registered by my officers."

It will doubtless be appreciated that until the final clearing up takes place there will be various cases of transference of graves so that what may be the location of to-day may be varied later; meanwhile information at present available may be only temporary.

Chief Staff Officer (London).
