Dear Walter:-

The bearer, Ralph Dwyer, who, as you know, has been overseas, tells me that word from some outside source might be of some assistance in arranging to get him one of the Lee Enfield Rifles which you have in stock. In case this idea be correct I am taking the liberty of saying that it would be a personal favour to myself if you could arrange it. Apart from the fact that he is married to a cousin of mine, he himself has been a personal friend for some years, and I should be grateful if my request would be the means of matters being arranged for him.

Yours very truly,
