My father do not need any of my money, I need the whole myself, and I want to know the Reason why I cannot have it. I understand, what money I get I should have, and I am not satisfied to make any allotment. I have no mother at home, no brother no sister, I am simply alone, and I need my money.

Kindly verify the soldier's reply to Query 2 (Minute I)

In view of his subsequent statement that his father does not need any of his money it may be possible that he misunderstood the question.

Preparation Allowance is a Grant made by the Government of Newfoundland to dependants of a soldier to assist him to maintain a home for them.

proceeding that the said contingent to allot 50 per cent of his pay to his

In view of Edward's statement

However it is just possible that he may have understood this question to apply to his
