July 24, 1916.

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, reporting that your son, Private John C. Edwards, had died of wounds at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Netley, on the 21st instant.

Permit me to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy at this time. Our hearts naturally sorrow at the loss of our loved ones, but it will no doubt be some consolation to you to remember that your brave boy came forward early at the Call of King and Country, that he bore his part gallantly and fell with his face to the foe in defence of the great principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. We are proud of our noble boys and also of the brave, unselfish mothers and fathers who so readily gave their sons when the Call of Duty came. Your dear son has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, but he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory and his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour while his fellow-countrymen will keep the same in fragrant memory. When the victory has been won and Peace again reigns upon earth, it will be some comfort to you to think that, in this great achievement, he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the presence and consolation of the Great Father of all.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.
