Dear Mr. Ells orth:-

Assuring you of my deepest sympathy in your bereavement and in the renewed sorrow which the receipt of these effects must entail.

I am enclosing herewith, receipt, will you kindly sign same and return at your earliest convenience.

Mrs Moses Ellsworth,
Carmanville,
Fogo, District.

Dear Mrs Ellsworth,

I am directed to reply to your letter of 14, Feby., concerning the effects received by you of #2469, the late Pte. J.S. Ellsworth. Judging by the contents of the parcel received by you there is no doubt that these things were contained in his kit bag which would be left in the transport line when Pte. Ellsworth went up the line. It is supposed that his body has not been found and is probably buried by a shell. Eventually a list of the men whose grave sites have been noted are forwarded to the Record Office, London, and they notify this department when the next of kin are notified in turn.

Yours faithfully,

Major,
Chief Staff Officer.

Dear Madam,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 14th instant, regarding your boy and I regret to have to inform you that, since the report of his being missing was received, we have no further official information concerning him. If he had been reported as a prisoner of war, I have no doubt that we should have had official news by this time but such is lacking up to this date.

I sympathise with you very sincerely in the anxiety through which you are passing and, while I do not desire to hold out false hopes, yet there is always the possibility of the missing one turning up some time. Although I am unable to give you more cheering news, yet I do not think that you should yet give up hope yet and I sincerely trust that in the coming days you may receive glad and definite news of your boy.

Yours sincerely,

Colonial Secretary.
