Dear Sir:-

With reference to application for Separation Allowance by Mrs. Agnes Ezekiel, in reply to question five:

If your husband is not supporting you, state the reason.

The following is the answer given:

I am afraid of him and don't live with him, I think him insane.

Can you inform me if there is any justification for this supposition, and if so, would it be possible to obtain a Certificate signed by a Doctor, stating her husband's condition, and his earning capacity; and also how long incapacity, if any, can be considered to have been an existence.

To Major Howley,

Dear Sir,

I write you regarding the Separation Allowance for those who had a son or sons' on the battlefields of France. Last April, I had a form filled out & signed by Father M. Grath Magistrate, Power & Co. Ft. Taylor, H. M. C., but since, I have heard nothing. I have one son who had been ~~shown~~ at the front, and returned, whilst in Europe. I received monthly $12. Enlisting March 1915 and returning with second draught, about the beginning of present year, my memory lacks. My sons name is Geny J. Esigal.

he has not returned from the fishery ^{to} here yet; but is at Harbor Maine; but will come here, he had been "Lashed and slightly wounded, & had been in hospital for a long time and feels the terrible effects of it yet. My position at present, and the clauses are written in my report that I forwarded last April, so it is unnecessary to go over it again.

So dear Sir after you see that report and consider it, please inform me at your earliest convenience re the separation allowance, and oblige your old humble servant, Agnes Ezzeal.

W. S. It was Rheumatism that caused my son to go to hospital; it is said that he will never get to normal condition.

Sir

In reference to yours of the 19th inst. I have no legal separation from my husband but had to separate from him on account of cruelty and non-support. There were times when he appeared to be insane and I would have to fly for my life after being beaten and bruised badly at and at times only saved by my neighbours from probably death. This continued for years and eventually I left him.

I have now only one son, George, to depend on, he has been to the war and since his return has been in such poor health that he cannot work in the mines. I am sixty five years old and am not in condition to work.
