INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.

This section should be completed in the Hospital at which a man is attending at the time of his examination by a Medical Board, or, if the man is not in Hospital, by the Medical Officer of the Unit or Command Depot. The form will then be attached to the Proceedings of the man's Medical Board and will be forwarded to the O. & C. Records together with the remainder of the man's documents.

Changes occurring in the description subsequent to the date of admission to pension should be noted in red ink.

NEWFOUNDLAND CONTINGENT

HONOURS AND AWARDS

793, CPL. L. J. FITZPATRICK, M.M., 1st Bn.,

~~The Royal Newfoundland Regiment~~

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He was the first to come forward when volunteers were called for to retake part of a trench which had been lost. He, leading a squad along the trench, succeeded in rescuing a wounded Officer who had been left behind. Though on first encountering an enemy bombing party he withdrew through lack of bombs, he procured some of the latter, and eventually drove back the hostile party, killing two of the latter himself.

Dear Madam:-

The following extract from Honours and Awards is quoted in connection with the deed for which No. 793, Sergt. L. Fitzpatrick won the Military Medal:-

"While counter-attack was coming on, this Sergeant's Lewis Gun became out of order owing to a certain breaking while firing, and his spare part bag having been previously blown up. He remembered seeing a damaged Lewis Gun during the advance, so he went back, found the damaged Gun and replaced the broken part of his own gun. During the whole attack he displayed the greatest bravery and coolness."

I wish to congratulate you on the conduct of your son which reflects credit, not only on himself, but on his Regiment.

Yours faithfully

Lieut. Col.,

Chief Staff Officer.
