Dear Sir:-

With reference to your letter of 20th Dec. dealing with the matter of clothing allowance, I have to state for your information that this matter has been placed before the Government but to this date no decision has been made. It is likely that this matter will be held over until February when the By-election now pending is finished.

If the allowance is granted, your instructions to credit your account in the Bank of Montreal will be carried out.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:-

Would you please inform me if the clothing allowance that the officers of the 9th Regt were looking for last year has been paid or not, - During the early part of the year I received a letter from Lt. Col. Rendell stating that it had not been decided owing to the "by-election".

Would you be kind enough to

to let me know if the allowance
was paid or not, and oblige
