Sir:-

Your letter of the 29th, Jan., has been received concerning your son #5146, Pte Stephen Fortune, I am unable to reply to your letter because information of the sort that you require is not received by this department, but a letter is being addressed to the Record Office, London, to see if any further information can be obtained, I can assure you of this much however that the best of care is always given to wounded soldiers in the hospitals in which they can be treated and it is thought that if he left any message this will be forwarded in due course.

Dear Nurses & Doctors

Janth 29 1918
C.R. 3146

I am writing to strangers I can't call you by name. I am writing to ask you about my Dear B. Child. He died among strangers it's hard to lose a Dear B. Child in that kind of way. But we must trust in God and ask Him to meet him. He did his part for King and Country and laid down his life. Please tell me if he died peaceful and was willing to die. Please tell me where he was wounded. I would be better satisfied to hear where he was wounded and did he suffer much pain.
Don't be afraid to let me know. It's so hard to have a dear son die so far away from home. But I guess he was taken care of and look after just as well as he was home. Please tell me if he had leave any words to tell us before he part this world. Please answer and let me know.

yours truly

Mr James Fortune

Dear Sir,

I should be pleased to know why there is not more than $39 — at the Pay & Record Office to the Credit of my son Pte. Stephen Fortune, who was killed in action or died of wounds, in Nov 1917.

The Department of Justice informs me that the above amount is available after Letters of Administration is issued to me.

I understand that my son was receiving about $15 a month in England and as he is dead now over a year there should be considerably more than $39.

I beg to add that I am now 60 years of age and Pte Stephen was my only son + sole support.

Yours truly
