September 28, 1917

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 22nd instant and note your desire that the intimation of any future fatalities amongst the boys in your neighbourhood may be communicated to you first for transmission to the next of kin.

I may say that, in the case of Private Charles Gillam, to which you have reference in your letter, the notification of his death was, as is customary, sent to the clergyman, who, in this case, was Rev. E. A. Butler, of St. George's. As the notification, as you state, was sent to you, I presume that it was done by Mr. Butler or by somebody on his behalf, so that you, being on the spot or near the parents of the deceased soldier, might break the news. As the practice invariably is to send notice of the fatality to the clergyman, as I have already stated, I think it would be better if this rule be adhered to in any future instance concerning your locality and, if the clergyman so desires, he can, as has apparently been done in the present case, delegate the task of conveying the sad tidings to you or some other suitable person.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary

Dear Mr. Squires -

I thank you for your telegram informing me of the death of Pte Chas Gilliam of Jefferys. And I at once made known the contents to his parents. Crabbes + Jefferys are really one settlement, one side of the river is now known as Jefferys.

Should there be any fatalities among our boys in the future, you will, I doubt not, let me know at first.

With kind regards -

Yours very faithfully

Thought as I had
of my Jane Corral

in 1916 and I only get just the allowance
that he allowed me I thought I would write and see if there is not
some thing due me
I do of course who

that is not entitled to it so much as I

for my self but i do that you will
 in every way see
