INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.

~~THE~~ UNDERMENTIONED N.C.O. RETURNED FROM SPECIAL DUTY AT
MT. PEARL? 10-10-18.

1085 Sgt. Goodyear.

September 26th/18

From Officer Commanding,
Depot.

To Serbgt Goodyear,
N.C.O. i/c Guard,
Mount Pearl

About a week ago the D.O.C. and myself visited Mount Pearl for the purpose of getting full particulars concerning the discharge of a rifle and the penetration of a tent by the bullet. Neither you nor the corporal could be found while we were out there, and consequently we could not get very much information.

As far as I am aware, no report has been received from you at all. I should like to know why the circumstance was not reported immediately to the Depot and why such a long time has passed without hearing from you, especially since you must have heard that the D.O.C. and myself were out there to enquire into the matter? You will please let me have a written report at once and, in future, steps should be taken to see that all happenings taking place during your tour of duty are reported to the Depot immediately. You should realize that you are sent there for a special purpose and that it is your duty to report anything strange that occurs. You should also realize that care should be taken in the handling of rifles by recruits; and it is necessary to report all cases where a rifle is discharged so that inexperienced recruits will not be encouraged to discharge rifles indiscriminately and consequently become a danger to their fellow soldiers.
