The Magistrate,
Fogo, Nfld.

Dear Sir:-

I enclose letter from Mrs Eli Wheaton, Fredericton, and one from Mte. William Goodyear to his sister. These have been forwarded to us in support of a claim for continuance of payment of the allotment of William Goodyear, which was formerly made to his mother, who died in Sept. last.

I have been instructed to request you to give me your opinion, confidentially, as to who is best entitled to payment on this account. Please return the letters with your reply.

Thanking you in advance

Yours truly,

Deputy Paymaster

W.B. Goodyear

January 6, 1917.

Dear Sir:-

I received two cheques of my brothers allotment after the death of my mother and should have had one more according to time. I want to know whether it is stopped by any one or gone astray. William says that I shall have the money. My brother Gordon is after the money but you will see by his letter enclosed what he says about it. My name was Maud Goodyear and by marriage Maud Wheaton.

My address:

Mrs. Eli Wheaton, Fredericton.

O.A.S.

November 12, 1916.

Dear Sister:-

I received your kind and welcome letter, but it made me very down hearted when I read it to hear that mother was dead. I am in the best of health. You spoke about my allotment. You can get it and give it to Eily to get a headstone for poor mother. Dont keep it for me for it wont be any good to me. When you write let me know if the old man was hard to her before she died. It is a poor home, if I ever do live to come back I wont be able to stay there for I suppose it was my doings for her to be where she is. Let me know if she had the doctor before she died and what she died in. I was glad to hear that she died happy. It is all God's will and we must all part some day. When you write let me know who is doing for Gorden and where he is staying. Let me know if Israel is married yet. Let me know if the old man is better off than what he was when I left. Do ye hear from Lionel or not. Say me to Aunt Jane and all the family and tell Maud that I wrote a letter to her and got no answer. Say me to Eli. I was verry thankful to him for his kindness that if I should come home he had a home for me, but I dont expect to wear out much floor. This will be the last letter for a while, but never mind, I may get home to see ye once more, let me know how they done with the fish the summer. I suppose Martin Hoff did well. Is Marter Hart married yet. I think I have said all for this time.

From your loving brother,

William Goodyear.
