Dear Sir

I had a money order sent to me from my cousin who is in the France, to get cashed for him. I went to Union Bank of Scotland and they told me that I would have to send it to London to get it changed. So I was speaking to one of our officers this morning and he told me the best thing to do was to send it to you to be cashed. Hoping you will oblige me by doing your best to get it cashed

for me.

I remain your obedient servant

INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.
