January 31, 1916.

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's memorandum of date 26th instant, covering telegram from Capt. Timewell of same date regarding Grouchy. I am passing on the information to Mr. Howley in accordance with Capt. Timewell's desire. I am also sending all the papers to the Attorney General for his information, in accordance with Your Excellency's suggestion.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

His Excellency
Sir Walter E. Davidson, K.C.M.G.,
etc., etc., etc.,
Governor.

Acting Adjutant.

339 Grouchy, discharged soldier, enquires of me whether he can receive more pay subsequent to the date on which he took his discharge in England. He served for a year and then when the time came for fighting he claimed to be discharged.

He is in ill-health having contracted syphilis during service. He states that he has a wife and five children and no means.

I see no reason why he should receive any more money than he was strictly entitled to. He has cost the Government £300 already and when the time came for going on active service he had not the heart to face danger.

I do not approve of his receiving any more pay than he is strictly entitled to.

You might refer him to the Trustees of the Patriotic Fund who might give him some help, because he is unwell, even though that is due to his own fault.

I give him One Dollar myself but do not think that he should receive pay for doing nothing.

25 January, 1916.

Governor.
