To The Minister of St Johns

Dear Sir
a long time ago I wrote you re private Richard J.
Harnes No 3037.
who was reported missing on Oct 24th 1918 and of whom no further news (officially) has been received his parents of Breston P. B.
(or perhaps he may have trailed from Montserrat) as the both places is almost in one) is more than anxious to here further of their brave boy's fate and cannot understand why no news are forthcoming as they are the only ones around here who are held in suspense with ~~the~~ the official news concerning their boy. & further they have rec'd of word of condolence or sympathy from any one in authority. as others who lost a son have rec'd.

And Sir Mrs Harren
so asked me to inquire if there isnt some money due her. she has rec'd up to date her allotment but havent rec'd any of what should be due her from her sons payment this was her only son to help her with support we would like this to be considered

Thanking you in anticipation
