Dear Sir

In answer to your letter received on 27th July about the Death of Lance Corporal of Warding 353 B Coy 1st New-Foundland Regiment 29th Div DET France, could you please give me any information regarding Kit Kit, I have been keeping up correspondence with him for about 13 yrs.

I was always led to believe he had either Kit or Kie belonging to him, he said that if ever anything happened, I would get all, could you please write and let me know.

as soon as you can, as I am most anxious to get all the news I can about him.

Dear Sir:-

I have been directed to write you asking if you can furnish me with any particulars concerning the son of the late Private Herbert Harding. We are informed that the boy is living at 64 Carter's Hill.

As we are disposed to consider his case for pension on his late father's account, I should like to have a statement as to his age, and if he is under sixteen years, kindly forward me a birth certificate and oblige.

Yours truly,

Secretary
