To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I have known James Standing for a little over six years. Up until the end of 1917 his health was good for his age. During the spring and summer of 1918 he consulted me on several occasions. In Sept. 1918 he had an attack of typhoid fever and since then has never fully regained his strength. In my opinion he will not be able to undertake any work of importance any more.
