October 22, 1915.

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Government and also for myself, I beg to tender you sincere sympathy on the death of your son No. 760 Private John Hardy, of the First Newfoundland Regiment, who died of his wounds on board the hospital ship NEURALIA on October 14th, 1915, and I assure you that your grief is shared by the Government and by the people of Newfoundland, in defence of whom and of the rest of the Empire he has given his life.

It will, I am sure, be solace to you to remember that he died for the principles of Righteousness and Justice and that he will ever be held in honoured remembrance as having, in the time of the nation's peril, offered himself with such unselfish devotion.

His name will stand high on the immortal Roll of Honour of those who have so nobly done their duty and made the Great Sacrifice for their King and Country.

Sympathetically yours,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. John Hardy,
49 Brazil Square.
