Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter of recent date re effects of late No. 3³66, Clarence Harris, I beg to advise that the information contained therein is insufficient for identification of the man Power referred to; perhaps the soldier whom you mention as having been a witness to the taking of the pocket Bible and Hymn Book, would be able to give further aid, as to the regimental particulars of the said Levi Power, in order to facilitate tracing him. Kindly note that further correspondence should be addressed to the Chief Staff Officer.

Faithfully yours,

A. Willey SSM.
