Dear Sir:—

I received my discharge on July 2nd 1919, after nineteen months service. During this time my aunt, Miss Jessie Hopkins who is depending on me, has been receiving a Separation Allowance of $20.00 (twenty dollars) per month. I understand that under these conditions I am entitled to four payments of $100. (one hundred dollars) each for four months or one hundred and twentytwo days. About the 7th of July I received a cheque for $70.00, Should I not have received $100.00? I would like for you to investigate and let me know.
