Minister of Militia

Dear Sir,

Gerald Some time in the early Spring past a man named ~~Gilbert~~ Hulan, of Crabbe's, in the District of St. George's, joined the Newfoundland Regiment, and after a month or two he contracted measles and died. Shortly after his decease I applied to the Deputy Paymaster's office here and was told that he had drawn a portion of his pay but that some portion still remained. As Hulan was unmarried and lived with his Father, the Father is now making application to me to have the amount remaining on the Paymaster's hands sent to him, and also enquiring^{ing} as to whether he is entitled to any further consideration.

I shall be pleased if you advise me what to say to Mr. Hulan in the case. The address of the father of
