Dear Sir:-

I have been informed that you have a rifle and bayonet in your possession since last year. I am endeavouring to close up the Militia Office, and am having these outstanding rifles and bayonets collected. Of course, I can appreciate the fact that you would like to keep these as souvenirs and also possible for use, but I am afraid that cannot be. These rifles and bayonets are the property of the Government and were purchased from the Imperial Government. Will you therefore, please take the necessary steps to have them returned as soon as possible.

I do not want you to have any unnecessary expenditure in this connection, so if you will take them to Magistrate Mifflin at Greenspond, or some other suitable person, they will undertake to have them sent to St. John's. If you prefer to return direct please let me know what your expenses are.

I hope to hear from you in the near future.

Yours faithfully,
