Dear Sir:—

Enclosed please find receipt of watch which belonged to my son.

Thank you very much for your kindness and sympathy. It did indeed remind me very forcibly of my poor boy, to have to handle any of his belongings.

Was there no other articles returned belonging to him? I would very much like to receive any and everything which belonged to him, but I suppose one should be satisfied with even one article belonging to him.

Thanking you again for your sympathy

I beg to remain

Very sincerely Yours

Mrs. Margaret Sykes.
