Sir.

I have recently received letters from Newfoundland dated as far back as two months ago, of which some have been marked "RETURNING". I should be glad if you would enquire as to why they have been so marked and also the reason for delay in delivery of same. I am now attached to "General Staff H.Q. 29th Division" and should be obliged if you would have all my letters directed to this address. Parcels etc. also forwarded from Newfoundland some six or eight weeks ago have not yet come to hand.

Until you stated that you were attached to the General Staff Headquarters, 29th. Division, British Expeditionary Force, it was not known that you were anywhere else than with the Unit.

However, I shall be pleased to carry out the wishes of the Honourable the Executive Government

To Major J. M. Howley

Dear Major

It seems that I am one of the unlucky ones. First I had ten days off and now
I am in again for twenty one days.
The Baby contracted a cold two days ago
Had the Doctor on Saturday and he pronounced it diphtheria so you can see what a fix I am in.

I am sorry that this should happen
at this time because it makes things rather awkward. Seeing that things are not looking bright at present as a favour would ask you if you will arrange to have my pay forwarded to me at the above address.

Hoping this will explain matters

I remain

DEPARTMENT OF MILITIA

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND

May 6, 1920

Lieut. Col. Rendell, C. B. E.,
Chief Staff Officer,
Militia Department
City

Sir:-

With reference to our conversation of a few days ago, re Extra Duty Pay for period 7-4-16 to 16-4-17 whilst employed on 29th Division, Hdqs., I beg to submit claim for same.

I was ordered by Major March, then Officer Commanding, D. Co., on 7-4-16 to report to Divisional Hdqs for duty, and was detached from unit on that date.

My work at the Division was as follows:

Hours 7.30 am to midnight (Except when on extra duty at night)

- 7-4-16 to 30-4-16 Typist
- 1-5-16 to 30-10-16 Registration & despatching of Confidential and Secret Documents.
- 1-11-16 to 16-4-17 Chief clerk to A.P.M. 29th Division.

I was recommended by Capt. Evans the A.P.M. to O.C. 1st Battalion for promotion, and was promoted L/Corpl. on 29-11-16

I received no extra pay whilst attached to Divisional Headquarters.

Pte. Gordon Phillips now (Hon. <sup>1st</sup> Sgt) received 60c per day as Extra Duty Pay for whole period, while attached to 8th Corps, Hdqs. I have his own statement to that effect also London Pay Books show that it had been paid.

I think, Sir, considering the work for which I was responsible and the extra work attached for same, that I am entitled to at least 2nd class clerks pay for the period mentioned.

An early consideration of above will be greatly appreciated

I remain,

Your obedient servant,

Alfred J. Looney

If the shipper does not declare the value of the shipment, liability is limited to fifty dollars, or, if less, to the actual value of the shipment. If the shipper desires the Company to assume liability in excess of fifty dollars, an additional charge will be made as provided by the classification.
4. Money, specie, completely signed and executed bonds, coupons, bank notes, and negotiable paper, or incompletely executed legal tender and bank notes, jewellery and precious stones shall not be packed, or included, with shipments of ordinary freight; and if so packed the Company shall not be liable for loss of, or damage to, such goods.
5. The Company shall not be liable:
(a) For differences in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation, or
(b) For loss or damage occurring after forty-eight hours (exclusive of legal holidays), after notice of the arrival of the shipment at destination, or at point of delivery has been mailed to the address of the consignee.
Unless, in either case, such loss or damage is caused by the negligence of the Company;

(d) For any loss or damage caused by delay or by injury to or loss or destruction of the shipment, or any part thereof from conditions beyond the control of the Company, unless such loss or damage is caused by the negligence of the railway company upon whose trains or property the shipment was at the time such loss or damage occurred.
(e) For any loss or damage occurring in Customs Warehouse;
(f) For any loss, damage or delay resulting from improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing, or from chafing when packed in bales;
(g) For any loss or damage, if the provisions of Clause 4 be violated in whole or in part;
(h) For any damage to or loss of any fragile article, or to shipments consisting wholly or in part of or contained in glass, unless so described upon the package containing the same, unless such damage or loss is due to the negligence of the Company, its agents or employees;
(i) For loss or damage from delays beyond its control, or caused by the refusal of any railway, steamboat, stage, or other transportation line to receive or forward the said property owing to any unusual or unforeseen movement of or interference with traffic;

(l) For any damage, partial loss, or shortage, unless written notice thereof is given at any office of the Company within thirty days from delivery;
(m) For any loss or damage occurring to shipments addressed to stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such station;
(n) For non-delivery or loss or destruction of the shipment in Canada, unless written notice thereof is given at any office of the Company within four months from the time delivery should, in the ordinary course of transit, have been made.
6. Duty and Custom House expenses are guaranteed by the shipper.
7. (a) At points where the Company has delivery service, tender of the shipment for delivery to the consignee will be made at the address given, if within such delivery limits.
(b) Where there is no delivery service, the Company will forthwith notify the consignee, at the address given, of the arrival of the shipment.
(c) The Company's liability to deliver to addresses outside delivery limits shall be governed by the Classification or Special Tariffs.
(d) If no express company subject to the Railway Act has an office at the place to which the shipment is addressed, then, unless otherwise routed, the Company only agrees to carry the same to its office, or that of some other express company subject to the said Act, most convenient for furtherance to destination, and upon arrival there, the Company may so notify the consignee, or, upon direction of the shipper or consignee, will, or upon its own discretion may, deliver the shipment to any connecting carrier for furtherance to destination.
(e) If the shipment is delivered to an express company or carrier not subject to the Railway Act, the Company shall act as the agent of the shipper in effecting such delivery, and contracting for further transportation, and the liability of the Company shall thereupon cease.
