Dear Sirs,

The last allotment I received was in January, but you did not say than if we were to receive any more, but so far we have received none.

The forms ^{for Pension} to be filled in was sent to you in December, but we have not heard from you, if they reached you or ~~not~~.

Please let us know about this also, the Blood money that I hear have been paid to returned soldiers, if these returned soldiers get it, I cannot see why we are not entitled to it, as we lost our dear Boy out there, so I think we are privileged to this money, as well as those that have returned, and also the pension as I have no help, when I lost my boy I lost all my help.

Please have this thing looked into, and let me know at your earliest convenience

I Oblige

Yours Truly
