Dear Madam:-

With reference to your letter of March 5th requesting that a photograph of the grave of your son No. 1115 Pte. Stephen James be obtained and forwarded to you, I have to inform you that the Directorate of Graves Registration and Enquiries are working energetically in order to comply with the numerous requests for photographs of soldiers' graves; and although it may mean some time before the isolated graves are registered and photographed, eventually it is hoped that a photograph of each permanent grave will be obtained. Meanwhile every effort is being made to make the work successful.

I attaching hereto a pamphlet in this connection which will no doubt prove both interesting and informative.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,
Chief Staff Officer
