I should be obliged if you can inform me if there is anything in your records to show how this board came about, in view of the fact that the man had been granted a month's leave. Can you therefore, inform me whether he was ordered before the Board or whether you have record of his making an application for board?

A reply at your earliest convenience will oblige.

Yours truly,

IN REPLY REFER TO

Major James M. Howley,
Archivist for Militia Records,

136 Thomas P. Janes.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter of the 12th ultimo regarding the marginally named man, I would say that we have no record to show why he was boarded in 1918. His file shows that he was boarded at Hazeley Down Camp on July 2, 1918, recommended for 40% for three months, and discharged as permanently unfit for active service. The next board is dated November 22, 1918.

Yours very truly,

The Hon,
The Colonial Secretary,
City.

Dear Sir:-

re No.136, Thos.P.Janes, Royal Nfld.Regiment.

This man has made application for payment in lieu of Blue Puttee Leave.

I find that he arrived in St.John's on August 4th.1918, with a draft of Blue Puttees, and that he was posted in Daily Orders, as having been granted one month's leave. Before the expiration of this leave he was examined by Standing Medical Board and recommended for discharge as medically unfit for further service. His discharge was carried out on September 2nd.1918.

In ordinary circumstances he would like others, be entitled to pay for that portion of the two months for which he was not on leave under pay. But I am at a loss to understand how his discharge came about before the expiration of the leave which he was officially granted. I can find no record of his having been ordered to report for examination, and in the absence of such the only conclusion I could arrive at was that he had applied to be boarded. However, I cannot find record of such an application, and the Medical Board has no record. (His applying for board would be the equivalent of forfeiture of leave which would debar him from payment.) I have, therefore, had him make an affidavit to the effect that the discharge was not effected at his own request, and this is enclosed.

The reason I place this application before you for adjudication is that, in view of the lack of information concerning his discharge I cannot take it upon myself to decide whether he is entitled to payment or not. If, in your opinion, payment should be made him, the amount will be $100.04 (One hundred dollars and four cents.)

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant
