The report:

Ref. attached:-

no. 56, Sgt. W. H. Jones who has just returned from hospital and is now about to report to Ripon has been with the 1st Bn. since September 1917. Reputations respecting marriage were unknown in the days prior to the establishment of the Depot and as this N.C.O. has been on service abroad since August 1915, he was unaware when he contracted marriage on Dec. 20th 1917 that he should first apply for permission from his O.C. I can certify that he is of unimpeachable character that his failure to apply for permission was done entirely through ignorance of regulations. He was on hospital furlough on Dec. 20th 1917. Will you kindly obtain the sanction of the O.C. to his marriage, please?

56 Sgt. Janes

Marginally noted man, who returned to Depot towards end of 1918 on "Blue Puttee" Leave and was since granted Conditional Leave, was before the Standing Medical Board last night, previous to Demobilization.

His papers have not yet come through and Sgt. Janes is desirous of having his discharge expedited so as not to interfere with his civilian occupation. His discharge will be approved immediately on receipt of his Medical papers, with effect from 6-3-19, and I send him herewith for any monies etc. that you have to issue him. He has received no pay or allowance of any kind from Depot, as his account has been handled direct from your office.
