

Jesseau, Arthur Francis, Regt. No. 249

Mentioned in Despatches

London Gazette, June 1st 1917

Action Date, February 1st 1917 – Lesboeuufs

A most gallant, successful and patient sniper. By his skill he has hit at least six of the enemy. On 1st February 1917, in order better to locate a sniper, he crept out into No Man's Land and waited for the sniper to show himself again. This he did after two hours when L/Cpl Jesseau promptly killed him.
