

Joy, Edward, Regt. No. 502

Military Medal

London Gazette, March 13th 1918

Action Date, November 20th 1917

During the final part of the attack when his own Officer was killed, he took charge of his platoon and showed the greatest courage and leadership in encouraging and leading his platoon. His personal example was the greatest asset to the whole company.

Bar to Military Medal

London Gazette, March 19th 1918

Appeared in Honours Gazette and no citation published.

Letter from Ministry of Defence, Northumberland House, London, June 11th 1964.