Feb. 14th 1918

LT. COL. W.F. Rengell,
C. S. O.

Sir:

In reference to our conference this morning, we beg to state our case plainly in writing.

On June 7th 1918 we were sent to Nr 2 O.C.B. Cambridge to train as Officers, we passed all War Office Examinations, and, on Nov. 30th we were fully qualified to hold Commissioned Rank in the Regiment. We were kept on at Cambridge pending instructions from the P & R Office. About Dec. 10th Capt Emerson was sent to Cambridge to interview all Cadets, and to give them the option of going back to the Battalion at their former ranks or remaining as Cadets until Demobilization. This placed us on the same basis as Cadets who had just started their course, and, considering we had passed all Examinations and become fully qualified to hold commissioned rank we think it very unfair that such should be the case.

On December 17th there were no further instructions from the P & R. Office, so we were sent on leave until January 3rd.

On the expiration of this leave we found instructions for us to report to the P & R. Office by noon Jan. 6th on doing so we were told by Colonel Barton, D.S.O. O.C. Depot that we were entitled to the rank of 2nd Lieutenant and he ordered us to wear the badges of that rank. We were again sent on leave until Jan. 21st which was the date the transport was to sail from Liverpool. During this time we had to keep up the dignity and appearance of Officers on our former ranks pay.

On reporting to the 2nd Battalion Jan. 21st we were put on duty in the Orderly Room doing Officers work and we continued doing so until we reached ST. JOHN'S.

All the Colonial Cadets who were with us on the Course received their Commissions with pay and full allowance dating from Nov. 30th.

The Imperial Cadets were demobilized and started in their civilian employment immediately. We feel quite justified in asking if you would kindly have our commissions dated from Dec 1st or, if that is impossible, we think we should be paid as 2/Lts. from the time we were ordered to wear the badges of that rank, viz: Jan. 7th.

Trusting this will receive your kind consideration

We have the honour to be

Dear Sir.

I am returning cheque for "War Service gratuity" dated Aug. 3rd, the Bank of Montreal here having refused to accept it as can be easily understood, it being made out in figures for $113 and in writing for $1.

This cheque is marked "Final Payment" whereas if I remember the Gratuity Scheme correctly an Officer or other rank is entitled to six monthly payments for three years service and upward.

If the sixth payment is withheld in my case on the grounds that I had barely the 3 years with ~~not a day~~ to spare I might add that I ~~took~~ my discharge without the customary 14 days leave as I was leaving the country.

Trusting that both these matters will be attended to.

I am

Yours truly,

Weston Keen.
