All Messages Sent are Subject to the Following Conditions:

The Management may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the N. P. T. or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the N. P. T., they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The N. P. T. shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the N. P. J. R. Bennett, Esq.,
Minister of Militia.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Charles Keen of Alexander Bay has just called to see us with reference to his son Wallace Keen, No. 2599, of the Newfoundland Regiment. Wallace Keen was missing on April 4th, 1917, was subsequently reported as officially considered dead. Mr. Keen got a memorial card and received some communication from you in reference to Administration of the estate of his son. He has, however, heard nothing further about the matter. He was in town today and requested us to represent him in connection therewith. Would you kindly let us hear from you fully as to the present position of affairs.

Yours truly,

A/1
