Dear Sir

Regarding my son Corp. Ernest Kelly Regimental No 27 and who is one of the returned "Blue Puttee" boys I beg to ask you if it is not possible that his furlough be extended and also that I wish if possible to get him discharged. The grounds on which I make this request is that I (his mother) am in a very serious condition of health being given up as incurable by two doctors viz: Dr Bow-perthwaite and Roberts. His father is not in very good health either and he is now our only child with us. We have only one other and he is married with a family of his own. Ernest has been wounded twice, first at Gallipoli next at Beaumont Hamel trusting to get an encouraging reply. I am yours sincerely
Mary A. Kelly

23 November 1916.

Dear Mrs. Kelly,

I shall forward your letter of the 29th Inst. to the Officer Commanding 2nd Battalion at Ayr for consideration regarding the granting of furlough to your son Pte. Ernest Kelly. All the veterans in the First Contingent deserve a holiday if they could be spared from the duties which they have manfully undertaken.

But the rule is this: All men discharged from Hospital are marked according to their health. A & B classes are fit for full duty, C & D classes are fit only for light duty or home defence.

If your son is classified in C or D the Doctor may certify that he would benefit by a sea voyage or by a change home. If he is in A or B furlough is not permitted. But parents and relatives have the satisfaction of knowing that he is in good health and strength.

You will well understand that it would not do for me or for anybody to override or attempt to modify the wise decisions of the Highest Military Authorities.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Thos. Kelly.
