Can you please spare a good Sergeant Clerk to proceed to the Base Record Office, No. 1. Infantry Section, 3rd Echelon, Rouen, to assist O.R. Sergt. Dewling, who during the period pending Demobilization will be extremely busy and probably unable to cope with the work there? It is thought an assistant would be of great value, and obviate any undue delay in regard to transmission of Records, when any men are withdrawn from France. Large Numbers.

In view of the fact that there only some ten more Prisoners of War to be released, it is suggested that 2921 Sergt. Kendall might be a suitable man, when he returns to your station from Dover.

If you can nominate an N. C. O. this Office will arrange to send him to France, please.

I can suggest no one better than Sergt. Kendall - who will be available on his return from the P.O.W. Camp. If you will let me know when he is required, he will be ordered to report to you.
