From C.C. Draft 1st Newfoundland Regiment.

To H.E. The Governor of Newfoundland.

On checking up draft on board Florizel a stowaway one J. Kent was discovered.

This man was formerly a member of the Regiment No. 2087, had proceeded to Ayr and been returned from there and discharged. He was employed for a time at the Range but as his conduct was unsatisfactory was dismissed. He has worn the uniform of the Regiment since discharge though provided with outfit allowance and has come under notice at different times for acting in a manner calculated to bring discredit on the uniform.

I had the Medical Officer examine him so that if he were fit I could retain him and swear him in.
